

Name: _____

The United States Constitution

The Constitution is the set of rules for the United States government. It was written in 1787 by the Founding Fathers. The Constitution can be changed by adding amendments. The first ten amendments to the Constitution are called the Bill of Rights.

Constitution

Constitution

Founding Fathers

Founding Fathers

amendments

amendments

Bill of Rights

Bill of Rights