

What Italian Renaissance artist is best known for Transfiguration and The Sistine Madonna? Raphael (1483-1520).	What famous Flemish Renaissance artist is known primarily for his religious works, such as The Descent from the Cross? Rubens (1577-1640).
What Italian Renaissance personage is famous as a silversmith, as well as for his autobiography? Cellini (1500-1571).	What famous Flemish Renaissance artist is known chiefly as a portrait painter, such as his triple portrait of King Charles I? Van Dyck (1599-1641).
What Spanish Renaissance artist is well known for his realistic historical and religious paintings, such as The Surrender of Breda? Velasquez (1599-1660).	What German Renaissance artist, famous for his engravings, has been called the “Leonardo of the North”? Durer (1471-1528).
What famous Dutch artist painted the Laughing Cavalier? Hals (1581-1666).	What German Renaissance artist is well known as a portraitist as well as for his woodcut series, The Dance of Death? Holbein (1497-1543).
What famous Dutch artist, known for his use of color, painted The Anatomy Lecture? Rembrandt (1606-1669).	What “Father of Italian Poetry” is best known for his Divine Comedy? Dante (1265-1321).