

What “Father of Italian Prose” is famous for The Decameron? Boccaccio (1313-1375).	What Renaissance Spanish writer mocked feudalism in Don Quixote? Cervantes (1547-1616).
What Italian political writer is well known for The Prince, a guidebook for tyrants? Machiavelli (1469-1527).	What Renaissance Portuguese writer described the history of his country in The Lusiad? Camoens (1524-1580).
What French vagabond poet is well known for his Testament and Ballad of Dead Ladies? Villon (1431-1485).	What English writer, executed by King Henry VIII, described an ideal state in Utopia? Thomas More (1478-1535).
What Renaissance French satirical writer wrote Gargantua? Rabelais (1494-1553).	What famous English dramatist wrote Volpone? Johnson (1573-1637).
What French Renaissance writer is known for pioneering the essay? Montaigne (1533-1592).	What English writer is thought to be the most famous playwright in the world thanks to plays such as Macbeth and Romeo and Juliet? Shakespeare (1564-1616).