

|  |   |
|--|---|
| What organization was called into session on May 5, 1789? Estates-General.   | What are the four periods of the French Revolution? National Assembly (1789-1791), Constituent Assembly (1791-1792), Convention (1792-1795), and Directory (1795-1799). |
| What Scottish economist advocated laissez-faire economics in his Wealth of Nations? Adam Smith (1723-1790).                    | What infamous Paris structure was attacked on July 14, 1789? The Bastille.  |
| What French writer wrote Emile and The Social Contract? Rousseau (1712-1778).  | Following the storming of the Bastille, Parisians organized their own government, known as what? The Commune.   |
| What French Enlightenment writer summarized knowledge in his Encyclopedia? Diderot (1713-1784).                                       | What is the name of the French flag, adopted during the revolution? Tricolor (blue, white, red).  |
| What was the name of the promise made by the National Assembly, whereby members vowed to write a constitution for France? Tennis Court Oath. | What is the name of Louis XVI's palace home, located just outside of Paris? Versailles.   |