

6.2 The French Revolution Unfolds (pp. 216-222)

Read the corresponding section and take notes in outline format.

- Political Crisis Leads to Revolt
 - Rumors Create the “Great Fear”
 - Paris Commune Comes to Power
- The National Assembly Acts
 - Special Privilege Ends
 - Declaration of the Rights of Man
 - Women March on Versailles
- The National Assembly Presses Onward
 - The Church Is Placed under State Control
 - The Constitution of 1791 Establishes a New Government
 - Louis’s Escape Fails
- Radicals Take Over
 - Rulers Fear Spread of Revolution
 - Threats Come from Abroad
 - Radicals Fight for Power and Declare War
 - The National Assembly Declares War on Tyranny