

16.2 The Western Democracies Stumble

(pp. 529-535)

Read the corresponding section and take notes in outline format.

- Politics in the Postwar World
 - Party Struggles in Britain
 - Irish Independence at Last
 - France's Troubled Peace
 - "The Red Scare" and Isolationism in the United States
- Postwar Foreign Policy
 - Arguing Allies
 - The Search for Peace
 - The League's Weakness
- Postwar Economics
 - Britain and France Recover
 - The United States Booms
- The Great Depression
 - Falling Demand and Overproduction
 - Crash and Collapse
 - The Depression Spreads
- The Democracies React to the Depression
 - Britain and France Search for Solutions
 - Roosevelt Offers the United States a New Deal
 - Loss of Faith in Democracy