

Leading Scientists of the Scientific Revolution – Multiple-Choice Quiz

Directions: Select the best answer from the given options.

1. What British scientist defined gravity?
 - a. Bacon
 - b. Brahe
 - c. Copernicus
 - d. Newton
2. What scientist, author of On the Revolutions of the Heavenly Spheres, believed that the sun is at the center of the universe?
 - a. Bacon
 - b. Brahe
 - c. Copernicus
 - d. Galileo
3. Who is credited with inventing the scientific method?
 - a. Bacon
 - b. Brahe
 - c. Copernicus
 - d. Galileo
4. Who came up with the Three Laws of Planetary Motion?
 - a. Bacon
 - b. Brahe
 - c. Copernicus
 - d. Kepler
5. What famous Italian astronomer was convicted of heresy by the Inquisition?
 - a. Descartes
 - b. Galileo
 - c. Kepler
 - d. Newton
6. What Danish royal astrologer mapped more than 700 stars?
 - a. Brahe
 - b. Descartes
 - c. Kepler
 - d. Newton
7. Who famously stated: "I think therefore I am"?
 - a. Descartes
 - b. Galileo
 - c. Kepler
 - d. Newton