The Computer Revolution

Multiple-Choice Quiz

Directions: Select the best possible answer from the given options.

1. What British scientist invented the World Wide Web (WWW) in 1989?
   a. Daniel Bell
   b. Nicholas Negroponte
   c. Stewart Brand
   d. Tim Berners-Lee

2. The _____ was brought on by computers and the Internet.
   a. Industrial Revolution
   b. Information Age
   c. Postmodernism movement
   d. Space Race

3. Which of the following has not been fully or partially replaced by personal computers (PC)?
   a. Accounting books
   b. Food consumption
   c. Print media
   d. Typewriters

4. The World Wide Web (WWW) is also known as the _____.
   a. digital magician
   b. Information Age
   c. Internet
   d. personal computer

5. Buying and selling on the Internet is called _____.
   a. consumerism
   b. E-commerce
   c. globalization
   d. the free market

6. The _____ began in the 1970s when microprocessor-based computers started to become common in industrialized businesses and households.
   a. Computer Revolution
   b. Information Age
   c. Scientific Revolution
   d. World Wide Web