

Mapping George Washington

Directions: Read each statement and follow its instructions.

1. The Second Continental Congress, which met in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, voted in favor of independence in July of 1776. Color Pennsylvania blue.
2. George Washington led American troops to victory over British troops on January 3, 1777, at the Battle of Princeton. Princeton is located in New Jersey. Color New Jersey red.
3. George Washington was born on February 22, 1732, in Westmoreland County, Virginia. Color Virginia yellow.
4. George Washington lived at Mount Vernon, in Virginia. Circle Mount Vernon in orange.
5. The capital city of the United States, Washington, D.C., is named in honor of George Washington. Circle Washington, D.C., in green.
6. List the five states bordering Virginia: _____

