

Name: _____

The Harvest

Harvesting is the process of gathering crops from fields. In the United States, most crops are harvested from fields in late summer and autumn. Late summer and autumn are often called the "harvest season." Crops harvested at this time include corn, barley, and wheat.

Describe the harvest in your own words.
